

Tractor's coming, too!

(Trecker kommt mit!)

»There are millions of things to do in the city for a tractor, at least a million!«

What are you saying? The tractor is not supposed to come along? I can hardly understand why we will be moving from the countryside into the city, but okay, if you wish to do so ... But I really cannot see why the tractor should not come along. You might not know, but there are so many things to do for a tractor in town. It can help when we go shopping and you need more than the usual for example. Or when there is a traffic jam on the motorway, the tractor can easily make way, which will be much better than to wait behind other small cars. I tell you: Either the tractor comes along into the city or I stay!

Finn-Ole Heinrich and Dita Zipfel have written an anarchic, wild and fearless book for children. Even grown-ups will ask themselves after reading the book how they could survive without a tractor up to now. The book has been illustrated by new comer Halina Kirschner from Leipzig who is a genius when it comes to screen-print-optic.

Extended media coverage. Selected reviews:

»Adorably persistent and eloquent as rarely in a picture book. [...] The book is pure tractor poetry, it praises the tractor, a passionate as well as detailed homage to this epitome of strength and class, of endurance and versatility. [...] One wants to read it immediately out loud, so defiant and beautiful is the rhythm.« FRIDTJOF KÜCHEMANN, FAZ

»Tractor's coming too is a declaration of love to the country life, drawn in strong strokes, packed in a sometimes almost Dadaist language.« ANJA WASSERBÄCH, STUTTGARTER ZEITUNG

»A headstrong, defiantly-poetic powerhouse of a picture book.« CHRISTIAN STAAS, DIE ZEIT
