

Sebastian Jung – Albert

Graphic Novel

The sense of justice and the will to fight for it have flown in Albert like an injection and never left him since.

Germany in the late 1930s: Albert is a happy young man, although he had lost his parents early and always had to adapt to find a home. When World War II begins, he is called for military service and fights for the German army in Norway and Russia. He gets injured badly, but he survives. Finally back home, Albert doesn't stay silent like so many others of his generation, but turns into a vehement pacifist who always talks about what happened to him. And he becomes a loving father who also has wonderful experiences in the young federal republic of Germany.

In this Graphic Novel illustrator Sebastian Jung tells the touching story of his grandfather. Designed as a notebook, texts, drawings, pictures and source documents are combining the past with the future in an extraordinary way. Sebastian Jung didn't only draw his family history, he also retells an important part of German history. And he shows us that it is always worth it to fight for justice.
